LOCAL ARTIST'S SUCCESS IN MAJOR NATIONAL ART EXHIBITION

Work by a local artist, Susan Brooke, has been selected from over 700 entries to appear alongside paintings by some of Britain's leading pastel artists. The Pastel Society's annual exhibition will be on display at Mall Galleries in central London between 23 February and 5 March 2016.

Featuring works created in pastels, pencils, chalk and charcoal, the Pastel Society exhibits abstract and experimental works alongside traditional representation. The artists, including elected members of the Society and those chosen from open submission, all share a passion for working in dry media.

"Pastels are the most exciting of all the mediums. What better than to grab a small piece of chalk and make an immediate blast of colour. No mixing, no fiddling around with Flow Improvers or Slow Drying mediums, no brushes to keep clean. Just pure colour at your fingertips." Cheryl Culver, President of the Pastel Society
